COOKIE POLICY

(last modified in May 2024)

Introduction

This Caristo website uses cookies. A cookie is a small text file which is stored on the browser of the device (laptop or smartphone) which you use to access our website. The cookie contains letter and numbers which uniquely identify your device and may contain other information such as your past preferences or actions.

You can read more about cookies at http://www.aboutcookies.org. We do not require your consent to use cookies which are strictly necessary for our website to function securely but will collect your consent for all other types of cookies.

Caristo uses these kinds of cookies:

- Functional Cookies: These cookies are strictly necessary to enable our website to operate, without them you would be unable to access the website.

- Analytics Cookies: These cookies allow us to collect statistics about how our website is being used, for example what pages receive the most visits. This helps us improve the design and functionality of our website (for instance by ensuring that users can find key functions easily). The Caristo website uses Google Analytics. For further information about Google Analytics please see https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners/.

Caristo does not use the following types of cookies. If in future we add any to our website we will explain their purpose to you and request your consent:

- Advertising/Marketing Cookies

- Personalisation Cookies

How you can control Cookies

When you first visit our website, we will ask for your consent to place cookies or similar technology on your device, except where the cookies re essential for us, for example to keep the website secure. A cookie settings banner will be displayed providing you with the ability to select which groups of cookies are to be enabled. The choices you make can subsequently be changed by clicking on Cookie Settings.

Alternatively, you may block cookies by activating settings on your internet browser which allow you to refuse the setting of some or all cookies. If you choose to block all cookies you may not be able to access all or some parts of our website.

Most cookies we use are known as session cookies. These cookies will expire whenever you close your browser or shut down your computer, and such cookies need not be blocked. Other cookies used for specific purpose will expire when that purpose is no longer required.
